

E-Book User Agreement

Please read the following conditions and rules carefully and fill out at the adult service desk of an Olathe Public Library. The Olathe Public Library provides eBook readers to its customers as an extension of its role as a provider of information through the use of technology. An eBook reader may be checked out by anyone with an Olathe Public Library or Johnson County Library card.

- I understand that I am responsible for any repair or replacement charges incurred for damage to or loss of the eBook reader. Replacement cost for the unit is $400, which also covers the cost of any books that may be loaded on the reader.
- All parts of the eBook reader must be returned (replacement cost of accessories is shown in parenthesis): soft reader case ($10.00), AC adapter ($20.00), stylus ($3.00), cleaning cloth ($2.00), hand carrying case ($6.00).
- The eBook must be returned to a check-out desk at the Olathe Public Library, during open hours. Do not return to a book drop.

- I understand that if the eBook reader is not returned by the due date, I will be assessed a late fee in the amount of $2.00/day to a maximum late fee of $20.00.
- Materials contained on the eBook reader are copyrighted. The deletion of addition of titles to the eBook reader is prohibited. However, you may underline and bookmark passages.
- I understand that if the eBook reader is not returned within thirty days past the due date, my account will be forwarded to a collection agency.
- Youth under 18 must have a parent's signature in addition to their own to check out an eBook reader, due to the high cost of repair and replacement.
- _____, the borrower of the eBook reader, understands the nature of electronic equipment and accepts responsibility for the use and return of the reader.

I have read the User Agreement and agree to abide by its terms.
