

LIVE AT THE LIBRARY SUMMER 2019

TUESDAY TUNES WITH BETSE

Bring your instrument and jam with us, share a song or just listen. Betse Ellis, a founding member of the Wilders, Betse & Clarke and Brushy Creek, leads the jam session. Expect fiddles, guitars, folk, blues and bluegrass.

Tuesdays | June 4; July 2; Aug. 6 | 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm | Olathe Downtown Library

TUESDAY WITH THE TWANG DADDIES

The Twang Daddies are Kansas City's premier honky-tonk and classic country band. They play songs made popular by the "Big Four" of country music: Johnny Cash, George Jones, Merle Haggard and Buck Owens. Don't miss this tour through the history of country music.

Tuesday | May 21 | 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm | Indian Creek Library

A SPACE ODYSSEY WITH THE BLUEGRASTRONAUTS

Julie Bates and Andrew Morris, of the Matchsellers, and crew mix elements of bluegrass with tall tales, theater and science fiction to create a musical journey through space .

Tuesday | June 11 | 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm | Indian Creek Library

BANJO & JEWELRY WITH TERI QUINN

Singer and songwriter Teri Quinn performs dark indie folk and plays the clawhammer banjo. She will also share her unique jewelry made from found bones and stones. Quinn is currently the lead singer for Abandoned Bells and played for five years with the local band, Claire and the Crowded Stage. She picked up a banjo after hearing the Old Crow Medicine Show on a Prairie Home Companion episode.

Tuesday | June 18 | 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm | Indian Creek Library

SAILIN' THROUGH THE SUMMER WITH SKY SMEED

Chanute, Kansas, native and singer-songwriter Sky Smeed performs his feel-good, country-tinged tunes about working hard, dogs, love, money, beer, coffee and the call of the road.

Tuesday | July 16 | 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm | Indian Creek Library

HARMONIC ALTERNATIVE FOLK WITH FLAGSHIP ROMANCE

Duo Shawn Fisher and Jordyn Jackson coined the term "harmonic alternative folk" to describe their enchanting, harmonizing, hard-driving guitar and upbeat original tunes.

Tuesday | July 30 | 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm | Indian Creek Library

PAN-MISSOURI POSSE: THE SHORT ROUND STRINGBAND

Short Round Stringband presents a revival of old-time, country and Southern mountain music that's fresh and relevant. Founded in 2017 by duos Betse & Clarke, of Kansas City, and The Aching Hearts, from St. Louis, this pan-Missouri folk band entralls new fans and long-time roots music devotees with their hard-driving fiddle tunes.

Tuesday | Aug. 13 | 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm | Olathe Downtown Library

